18. [] LIAISON Met with Howard Liebengood and Rick Inderfurth, on the staff of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and delivered to them the documents which they had requested relating to the Committee's [] investigation. Sanitized materials through the Secret level were left with the Committee on loan. Pursuant to the agreement reached between Mr. Cary and Rick Inderfurth the preceding evening, I also had in my possession certain of the documents in unsanitized form and Liebengood occasionally referred to these documents. Liebengood asked for unsanitized copies of certain of these documents for the Committee's possession, and I said I would check to make sure the sanitizations were properly done. At the conclusion of Liebengood's review, I returned with the unsanitized documents.

3. [] LIAISON Called Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and verified he had not spoken to any members of the Committee regarding speaking to an upcoming Chief of Stations' conference. Regarding S. 3197, the electronic surveillance bill, Miller said the present plans call for it to be raised on the Senate floor tomorrow, but withdrawn. This means there will be no further action this Congress on the bill. Miller also said the Senate leadership had been notified that the CIARDS legislation must be passed this year and that the Committee was confident that it would be. He said it would be reported from the Committee no later than next Wednesday.

6. [] LIAISON Met with Tom Connaughton, Senator Birch Bayh's (D., Ind.) designee on the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. Connaughton said he had received his clearances and would be officially transferred to the staff of the Select Committee within the next week. I asked him about the work of the Subcommittee on Intelligence and the Rights of Americans, which Senator Bayh chairs, and told him I would like to meet with him regarding what support the Agency could give the Subcommittee once the Subcommittee gets underway. Connaughton asked me to provide the first name of the wife of an Agency official whom Senator Bayh had met on his recent trip. Connaughton also said Senator Bayh had found his trip very educational and that the trip had gone very smoothly. I told Connaughton that since this was the first overseas trip of an SSCI member, we would like the opportunity to speak with the Senator about his impressions.

7. [] LIAISON Called Ronald Kienlen, OMB, to inform him the Agency had no problems with the proposed Executive order entitled "Amending Executive Order No. 10973, Relating to Administration of Foreign Assistance and Related Functions; Revoking Executive Order 11501, Relating to Foreign Military Sales; and Providing for the Administration of Arms Export Controls."

8. [] AGENCY VISIT Called Clair Hoffman, GAO, and arrangements were made for Hoffman and Mario Petrucelli, also of GAO, to visit NPIC on Monday at 0900 hours to evaluate the effectiveness of our silver recovery program. [] NPIC, was advised.

STAT

9. [] LEGISLATION Called Bernard Martin, OMB, and Bill Skidmore, Legislative Affairs, Department of Commerce, concerning S. 3664, a bill to amend the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to require issuers of securities registered pursuant to Section 12 of such Act to maintain accurate records, to prohibit certain bribes, and for other purposes. Skidmore suggested that I contact J. T. Smith, General Counsel, Commerce Department, to learn the current state of play.

8. [] LIAISON Mike Madigan, Minority Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, called to request on behalf of Senator Howard H. Baker (R., Tenn.) a copy of a 28 November 1963 Agency cable referred to in the 7 September Jack Anderson column. Madigan and I also discussed Senator Jake Garn's (R., Utah) foreign travel plans. Madigan would like to receive a suggested itinerary covering approximately ten days and stressing counterintelligence. He and Senator Garn would also like a briefing on the subject shortly before their departure. Madigan hopes the Senator will be able to travel in October or November, but this is not definite.

9. [] LIAISON I returned the call to Mr. Cary from Rick Inderfurth, on the staff of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. Inderfurth stated that the Committee was going to pursue the murder of [] and would like, by early next week, access to all Agency files on [] as well as several other related files. Inderfurth also stated that Senator Gary Hart (D., Colo.) would like to make a public statement before Congress adjourns on the reaction of the Intelligence Community to the Church Committee recommendations. Inderfurth requested a status report from the Agency on which recommendations had been adopted.
